

Locally delivered insights with a global reach.

Why CRI?

If one thing is certain, tax laws are not stagnant and will constantly change. With change comes challenges, and the area of international tax is no different. Organizations and individuals who have income and operations at stake in multiple countries face extra scrutiny and obstacles that can leave a lasting and damaging impact if not dealt with accordingly. CRI's team of tax professionals has the national and international tax experience to help you develop a proactive plan to mitigate risk, increase cash flow, and manage your global effective tax rate, all while increasing your financial worth.
