

Optimize your ministry with expertise from CRI.

Why CRI?

Transparency and accountability are foundational components of religious organizations in many facets, including their financial management. CRI's team of experienced advisors understands the unique needs of religious institutions and specializes in providing comprehensive financial solutions for churches, synagogues, religious groups, faith-based organizations, and other places of worship. From outsourced accounting services to audits, reviews, and compilations, partnering with CRI and CRI's Family of Companies allows you to keep your focus where it should be—on your organization's stewardship, governance, and administration.
