Empower Your Team to Protect What Matters Most

Why CRI?

Did you know that over 80% of cyber incidents stem from human error and not technical failures? ¹ Technical safeguards are only part of the equation; true resilience starts with equipping your team with the knowledge, skills, and confidence to recognize risks and respond appropriately. Whether you're a nonprofit, municipal government, credit union, or small business, the people behind your mission are your strongest defense—or your greatest vulnerability—when it comes to information security.

CRI's Cybersecurity specialists deliver engaging training sessions customized to your organization's needs and regulatory requirements. From board-focused briefings to employee awareness programs, our tailored presentations are created to inform and instill confidence at every level.

Our custom training solutions include:

- Cybersecurity
- Mobile Device Usage and Security
- Cloud Computing
- Information Security for Employees/Customers
- Corporate Account Takeover
- Strategic Technology Planning
- IT Management
- Business Continuity/Disaster Recovery
- IT Hot Topics
- IT Auditing

CRI's Cybersecurity Training and Education Services can be delivered as standalone sessions or paired with broader engagements like IT risk assessments, data privacy audits, or compliance readiness evaluations.

With experience spanning many industries and a pulse on emerging threat trends, CRI's interactive trainings help your employees think critically, act securely, and become part of your cybersecurity defense. We help organizations foster a culture of security from the inside out.
