Strategic Cybersecurity Leadership Without the Full-Time Overhead

Why CRI?

CRI's Virtual Information Security Officer (vCISO) services offer organizations strategic, hands-on cybersecurity support in constructing and maintaining a resilient information security program. As an extension of your team, our experienced consultants strengthen your existing security framework while proactively identifying and addressing emerging threats, so you can stay ahead of risk without missing a beat.

We offer a comprehensive suite of offerings customized to meet your organization's risk profile, regulatory obligations, and strategic objectives. With services spanning governance, risk, and compliance (GRC), employee security awareness and training, vendor risk management, endpoint and application security assessments, and more, each engagement is designed to strengthen your overall security posture while enabling scalability and adaptability in an evolving threat landscape.

You can further tailor CRI's vCISO services to include risk assessments, policy development and support, vulnerability scans, incident response planning, tabletop exercises, control testing, and hands-on IT support for audits and regulatory exams.

Partnering with CRI as your vCISO gives you access to a team of cybersecurity professionals who provide executive insight, practical strategies, and technical expertise with every project. We work as an extension of your team, helping you confidently navigate today's threat landscape. Let's build a resilient future—together.
