Peace of mind within a constantly evolving governmental compliance environment is within reach with the help of CRI's trusted team of governmental accounting advisors.

Why CRI?

The last thing any governmental-based entity wants to receive are compliance findings from auditors or other oversight bodies—and no government wants their funds to be in jeopardy due to a failure to maintain required compliance measures. Bringing aboard CRI's governmental accounting advisors to your team helps ensure compliance maintenance amidst a sea of seemingly continuous changes, often resulting in peace of mind for your organization. Minimizing the risk of returned funds due to noncompliance and accelerating program performance not only saves your governmental organization time, but also money. From grants and federal pandemic relief funding compliance to our extensive single audit* experience, CRI's team has the fortitude and honed skill to keep your organization focused on the future.
