Providing Independent Insight & Clarity Throughout a Complicated Process

Why CRI?

CRI's Construction Audit & Advisory Services team inserts a level of accountability you deserve as you embark on your construction project. With CRI's involvement, our clients can laser focus on what matters most: managing and running your important construction project. While studies show that most construction projects exceed their original budget, our experienced team is ready to help you beat the odds by providing a third-party, independent consultant who brings value and independence to manage your financial risks.

Our top priority is helping you achieve your objectives. Through periodic construction cost verifications or real-time advisory services, our Certified Construction Auditors and Consultants help recover overbilling and identify opportunities for improvement before, during, and after a project has started.
