CRI's keen insights can help you successfully operate your captive insurance company.

Why CRI?

While captive insurance companies ("captives") can be very beneficial for their owners, successfully overseeing a captive can be a complex endeavor. Partnering with knowledgeable captive insurance auditors and advisors can lighten the burden by making this process much less complicated. CRI is skilled in the art of addressing complex captive auditing, consulting, and tax matters. Our ability to think beyond the numbers provides you with the most in-depth expertise to help guide your captive insurance company's strategy.
