CRI's Internal Controls team grants the peace of mind your business deserves.

Why CRI?

CRI teams with you to provide internal control services that can document or evaluate current workflows, identify areas of high risk, evaluate duty segregation, and develop or assess formal policies. While evaluating internal controls is a systematic process, advisors who understand your industry can likely conduct a more efficient and comprehensive engagement, which will provide you with more overall value. Our professionals have years of experience working with a variety of specialized industries and addressing their unique situations. Whether you need to assess your current processes, perform an internal audit, or design new controls to rebound from a cyberattack, CRI's skilled advisors provide you with peace of mind so you can remain focused on accomplishing your business' goals and objectives.
